The Individual's Rights and Obligations

Last updated: 6/4-2023

About Sweden – an orientation about Swedish society.

Print the entire theme

This theme is about the individual's rights and obligations.

The text describes human rights and how those rights influence Swedish law. It also describes the special rights that women, children, people with functional impairments and minority groups have.

The theme is also about discrimination. The text describes, for example, what you can do if you have been subjected to discrimination. It will also ask you to think about norms and how norms can influence you and other people in your everyday life.
