Application for special income tax for non-residents (SINK)

In this e-service, you can apply for special income tax if you are a resident outside of Sweden. You need an email address to be able to log in with a temporary login.

Use our e-service

Log in to the e-service by clicking the yellow button below.

You should use this e-service if you are a resident outside of Sweden and are working here for 6 months or less, or if you receive your pension from Sweden. If you are working in Sweden for a longer period than 6 months, you need to send in a notification of preliminary income tax (Swedish: A-skatt) instead.

Make sure to fill out the questions in the e-service with the correct information to reduce the administration time of your errand. You must enclose a copy of your passport to your application.

In this e-service, you can:

- Apply for special income tax for you as a resident outside of Sweden
- Request to be taxed in accordance with the Swedish Income Tax Act (Inkomstskattelagen)

You must enclose a copy of your passport to your application

You must enclose a copy of your passport to your application for SINK. If you do not have a passport, you should attach a copy of your national identity card instead.

Keep in mind that all information must be visible when photographing or scanning your passport or national identity card. It is preferred if the copy is in color.

More information about enclosing your passport

Passport: Attach a copy of the entire page showing;

- Personal information
- Period of validity
- Country of issue
- Signature

It is especially important that the entire machine-readable code on the identity page is clearly visible, see the marked area in the image.

More information about enclosing National identity card

National identity card: Attach a copy of the entire front and the entire back.

It is especially important that the entire machine-readable code on the identity page is clearly visible, see the marked area in the image.
