Living in Sweden
Living in Sweden often means registering and paying taxes on salary and other income. A civil registration in Sweden is required for most persons who intend to stay in Sweden for more than one year.
Your civil registration
To be registered in the Swedish Population Register means that you have a personal identity number and that you are registered as living at a certain address and property.
• Civil registration
Apply for an identity card
As a Swedish resident, you can obtain a Swedish identity card, ID card, from the Swedish Tax Agency.
• ID card
File your income tax return
Individuals living in Sweden are liable to pay income tax on all incomes. Find information on how to submit your income tax return.
